I only agreed on one talent - Includer, with the other 4 not making my list at all (Adaptability, Arranger, Empathy and Restorative).

I believe the ones I originally chose are all important to me, and are probably the next tier of talents. As I learned more depth about the ones highlighted in the test I can see their importance to me and how they work together.

Talent common areas:

- Work closely with others, collaborate
- Help people succeed
- Regularly meet new people and get to know who they really are
- Include people and help others connect
- Help make good things great
- See the positives in people and situations

Actions

- Focus on success and study those who have been successful
- Practice ways to charm and engage others
- Spend time with my family and friends
- Focus on making good things great
- Spend time getting to know people, regardless of their role or status
- Find roles where I highlight the positive
- Find roles where I work and interact with others
- Find a role where I help others achieve success
- Find a workplace where friendships are encouraged
