

Matt's Career Advisory Board Members

Brenda - my wife of 23 years she is a part time contract accountant for the City and working on getting licensed as a fiduciary.

Jeb - a friend of 4 years who I met while serving on the board of the Leadership Council. We have worked together on projects for the council and I did a consulting project for his small business. He is preparing to leave his company for something new and exploring what he wants to do next.

Abbie - a friend of 6 years who I originally met when I hired her into a role working for me at another company but we have become close friends. She now works at another company as a web content strategist and has always been good at looking ahead for her next opportunity.
